A1 Young Learners Movers (YLE)

A2 Young Learners Flyers - Key English Test (KET)

B1 Preliminary for Schools – Preliminary English Test (PET)

B2 First Certificate (FCE) for Schools Advanced

It's very important that classroom activities and assessments are appropriate and engaging. This encourages students to learn in a positive environment and helps them to use English effectively in real-life situations. It's also essential that language assessments used are fair and linked to internationally recognised standards.

Our Cambridge English for Schools range of exams is designed and developed to motivate students at secondary school. The exams bring learning to life, covering topics that students are familiar with and developing the skills they need to communicate, make friends, study and work in English. There are different levels of exam from beginner to advanced level, so students can improve their English and build their confidence step by step. All our exams are aligned with the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).
